Memo No – KGEC/308

Date: 10.08.2026

NOTICE

Subject: Strict Warning Against Ragging and Reminder of Consequences

All students of Kalyani Government Engineering College are hereby reminded that ragging in any form is a criminal offence under the law and is strictly banned within and outside the college premises as per the following:

1. UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009.
2. West Bengal Prohibition of Ragging in Educational Institutions Act, 2000.
3. AICTE Regulations (2012) for Prevention and Prohibition of Ragging.

As per these Acts and Regulations:

- Any student found guilty of ragging is liable to be expelled from the institution and debarred from admission to any other educational institution.
- The student may also face suspension, fine, cancellation of scholarship/fellowship, and criminal proceedings under relevant sections of the Indian Penal Code.
- The institution is bound to report such incidents to the Police and affiliating University immediately.

All students are strictly warned to refrain from any act, direct or indirect, that may amount to ragging or harassment of any fellow student. The college maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward ragging, and any violation will invite severe disciplinary and legal action without exception.

Students are also advised to report any incident of ragging immediately to the Anti-Ragging Committee of the college or any faculty or staff for immediate action.

For delayed action from college end, student may communicate to the Anti-Ragging Helpline at 1800 180 5522.

All faculties and staffs are requested to keep vigil regarding this issue.

Let us all maintain a healthy, respectful, and inclusive academic environment at Kalyani Government Engineering College.
